Other activities

Apart from work as a political scientist, I am a jazz pianist. I have taught piano in a number of schools and played in concert halls, hotels and restaurants with a variety of groups. Some recordings are available on my SoundCloud page.

I also frequently work as a volunteer in the social solidarity institution Os Malmequeres, for intellectually disabled people, where I have organized musical workshops and in whose technical team I have been a volunteer during their weeks of outdoor activities.

Finally, I am active in supporting refugees. During my PhD I was a representative of the EUI Refugee Initiative, working on their social activities committee. I also volunteered in the International Seminar on How to Support Refugees, organized by the Friedrich Ebert Foundation Lisbon and European Alternatives and hosted by the Goethe Institut Lisbon.
